

The media should not be owned and controlled by a select few who ultimately dictate what information we have access to. Please recognize your responsibility to protect the interests of general public. Thank you.

John A. Duerk